- you are at least 18 years old
- and you are not:
 - covered by a collective bargaining agreement (unless the agreement specifically provides for you to be covered by the plan)
 - a leased employee
 - a nonresident alien and do not receive any U.S. earned income
 - Part-time Employees
 - Temporary Employees

The Plan does not cover employees who are residents of Puerto Rico.

How do I enroll?

To enroll, log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com. You can also set up your beneficiary information by going to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com or calling a Fidelity Representative at 1-800-835-5097 to request a Designation of Beneficiary Form to fill out and return to Fidelity.

If you do not take action to enroll in the plan, you will be automatically enrolled at the contribution percentage described in a separate notice to you at the time you are first eligible to participate in the plan. If you do not select an investment, your Plan Sponsor has directed Fidelity to place your money in a Fidelity Freedom Fund that most closely aligns with your projected retirement date based upon your birth year. Fidelity Freedom Funds contain a diversified portfolio of investments that will fluctuate in value over time. These funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to the additional risks associated with investing in high yield, small cap and foreign securities. If you would prefer to elect not to participate at this time or to specifically elect a contribution rate and/or investment elections, please contact Fidelity by logging onto www.401k.com or call 1-800-835-5097.

When is my enrollment effective?

Once you satisfy these requirements, you will become eligible to participate in the Plan on the first day of the following month.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deduction, you may contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax and/or Roth basis, up to the annual IRS dollar limit (2026 = $24,500). You may change your deferral percentage as applicable. Any changes made would take effect at the beginning of each payroll period.

Unlike your traditional, pretax 401(k) deferrals, the Roth 401(k) feature allows you to contribute after-tax dollars, but then withdraw tax-free dollars from your account when you retire, provided the distribution is "qualified." A qualified distribution is one that is taken after the five taxable year period beginning January 1 of the year for which your first designated Roth contribution to the plan is made (or to a previous plan, if that amount was subsequently rolled over to the distributing plan) AND you turn age 59 ½, become disabled, or die. If you are eligible to make traditional pretax 401(k) contributions, you can also make Roth 401(k) after-tax contributions. Your total contributions to the plan (both Roth 401(k) after-tax deferrals and traditional pretax contributions) cannot exceed IRS limits, or your plan's limit, if less.

Your company's plan has established an Annual Increase Program which will automatically increase your contributions by 1% on January 1. Each year on the designated date, your contributions will increase by the amount your company has established which may be limited to a deferral percentage communicated to you by notice. If you want to contribute more to the Annual Increase Program or if you wish to opt out of the program, follow the instructions outlined in the notification letter.

If you are age 50 or over by the end of the taxable year and have reached the annual IRS limit or Plan's maximum contribution limit for the year, you may make additional salary deferral contributions to the Plan up to the IRS Catch-Up Contribution Limit (2026 = $8,000). Starting in 2025, the SECURE 2.0 Act increases the limit for you if you have attained age 60, 61, 62, or 63 in a given calendar year. The limit for 2026 is $11,250.

Starting in 2026, if your FICA wages from the prior calendar year with your current employer exceeded $150,000, any age 50 catch-up contributions to the Plan must be made as Roth contributions. If your FICA wages were $150,000 or less, your catch-up contribution may be pretax or Roth.

Can I move money from another retirement plan into this one?

You may be permitted to roll over eligible contributions into this Plan from a previous employer's retirement plan. For other eligible account types, please see your Summary Plan Description. Once you have confirmed that your Employer will accept your rollover contribution, you can get started in the "Rollovers" section online. Be sure to consider all your available options and the applicable fees and features of each before moving your retirement assets.

Does the Company contribute to my account?

Your employer will make Safe Harbor matching contributions to your account based on your contributions. The amount will equal:

- 100% of the first 3% of your eligible compensation contributed to the Plan
- 50% of the next 2% of your eligible compensation contributed to the Plan

To be eligible for Safe Harbor matching contributions you are required to:

- make employee pretax deferral contributions or Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral contributions. The plan will match on the combined total of these contributions up to the matching limit.

In some Plan Years, your Employer may choose to make an additional discretionary matching contribution to your account. The amount would be determined at Plan Year end by a Board of Directors' Resolution.

To be eligible for additional discretionary matching contributions you are required to:

- make employee pretax deferral contributions or Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral contributions. The plan will match on the combined total of these contributions up to the matching limit.

For purposes of determining your matching contributions under the Plan, your deferral contributions will include Age 50 and over Catch-Up Contributions described above.

The Employer may make a discretionary profit sharing contribution to only those participants who are eligible under the terms of the plan. Please refer to your employer or Summary Plan Description for more detailed information.

When am I vested?

The term "vesting" refers to the portion of your account balance that you are entitled to under the plan's rules.

You are always 100% vested in your:

- employee pretax account
- Employer matching contribution account
- Employer profit sharing contribution account
- rollover account
- Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral account
- Safe Harbor matching contributions
- and any earnings thereon.

Can I take a loan from my account?

Although your plan account is intended for your retirement, you may take a loan from your account.

Can I make withdrawals from my account?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted in the event of termination of employment, retirement, disability, as a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), or death. You may also be eligible for a withdrawal in the case of a severe financial hardship as defined by your Plan.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of the date indicated. There may be a number of funds in each category and each may have a significantly different risk profile as compared to other funds within that category as well as compared to funds in other categories on the spectrum. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. DESCRIPTIONS OF INVESTMENT options

STABLE VALUE FUNDS

Stable Value Fund Fee
Class R1
O2SM

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.32 as of 11/30/2025

Objective:

The Fund seeks to preserve principal and achieve high current income through a diversified portfolio of high-quality investment contracts.

Strategy:

The Fund invests in the Putnam Stable Value Fund (the "Underlying Fund").

Risk:

The Contracts and securities purchased for the fund are backed solely by the financial resources of the issuers of such Contracts and securities. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the manager(s), the plan sponsor, the trustee, the FDIC, or any other government agency. The Contracts purchased by the fund permit the fund to account for the fixed income securities at book value (principal plus interest accrued to date). Through the use of book value accounting, there is no immediate recognition of investment gains and losses on the fund's securities. Instead, gains and losses are recognized over time by periodically adjusting the interest rate credited to the fund under the Contracts. However, while the fund seeks to preserve your principal investment, it is possible to lose money by investing in this fund. The Contracts provide for the payment of certain withdrawals and exchanges at book value during the terms of the Contracts. In order to maintain the Contract issuers' promise to pay such withdrawals and exchanges at book value, the Contracts subject the fund and its participants to certain restrictions. For example, withdrawals prompted by certain events (e.g., layoffs, early retirement windows, spin-offs, sale of a division, facility closings, plan terminations, partial plan terminations, changes in laws or regulations) may be paid at the market value of the fund's securities, which may be less than your book value balance. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who seeks a slightly higher yield over the long term than is offered by money market funds, but who is willing to accept slightly more investment risk.
- Someone who is interested in balancing an aggressive portfolio with an investment that seeks to provide stability of price.

Footnotes:

The investment option is a stable value fund. It is managed by Great Gray Trust Company, LLC. This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the fund.

This investment option is not a mutual fund.

BOND FUNDS

Fidelity® Total Bond K6
Fund
2944

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.3 as of 10/30/2025

Objective:

Seeks a high level of current income.

Strategy:

Normally investing at least 80% of assets in debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities. Allocating assets across investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market asset classes debt securities. Emerging markets include countries that have an emerging stock market as defined by MSCI, countries or markets with low- to middle-income economies as classified by the World Bank, and other countries or markets that the Adviser identifies as having similar emerging markets characteristics. Investing up to 20% of assets in lower-quality debt securities (those of less than investment-grade quality, also referred to as high yield debt securities or junk bonds). Managing the fund to have similar overall interest rate risk to the index Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Allocating assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Analyzing the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer, security-specific features, current and potential future valuation, and trading opportunities to select investments. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default), options, and futures contracts and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines) consistent with the asset classes discussed above.

Risk:

In general, the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Lower-quality bonds can be more volatile and have greater risk of default than higher-quality bonds. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks, all of which are magnified in emerging markets. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risk.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

DOMESTIC EQUITY FUNDS

American Century Small Cap Growth Fund R6 Gross Expense Ratio: 0.79 as of 03/01/2025

Class Objective:

OE9V The investment seeks long-term capital growth.

Strategy:

Under normal market conditions, the fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in small cap companies. The portfolio managers consider small cap companies to include those with a market capitalization that does not exceed that of the largest company in the Russell 2000 Growth Index. The portfolio managers look for stocks of smaller-sized companies they believe will increase in value over time, using an investment strategy developed by the fund's investment advisor.

Risk:

The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.

- Someone who is willing to accept the generally greater price volatility associated both with growth-oriented stocks and with smaller companies.

Footnotes:

This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

The Russell 2000® Growth Index is an unmanaged market capitalization-weighted index of growth-oriented stocks of U.S. domiciled companies that are included in the Russell 2000 Index. Growth-oriented stocks tend to have higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values.

The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 07/26/2013. Strategy:

Normally investing at least 80% of assets in common stocks included in the S&P 500 Index, which broadly represents the performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States. The fund may operate as a non-diversified fund, as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (1940 Act), to the approximate extent the Index is non-diversified. The fund may therefore operate as non-diversified solely as a result of a change in relative market capitalization or index weighting of one or more constituents of the Index.

Risk:

Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. The fund may have additional volatility because it can invest a significant portion of assets in securities of a small number of individual issuers.

TARGET DATE FUNDS

Fidelity Freedom®
Blend 2010 Fund
Premier Class
6364

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.17 as of 06/01/2025

Objective:

Seeks high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Strategy:

Designed for investors who have retired or expect to retire in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), some of which are actively managed and others of which are passively managed, meaning they seek to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Blend Retirement Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Blend Retirement Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. A revised neutral asset allocation strategy for the fund is expected to take effect by the end of the first quarter of 2027. During the fourth quarter of 2025, the Adviser will begin transitioning the neutral asset allocation percentages to achieve the desired allocations. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10% for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Risk:

Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Blend Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Blend Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Premier Class

Strategy:

Designed for investors who have retired or expect to retire in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), some of which are actively managed and others of which are passively managed, meaning they seek to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Blend Retirement Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. A revised neutral asset allocation strategy for the fund is expected to take effect by the end of the first quarter of 2027. During the fourth quarter of 2025, the Adviser will begin transitioning the neutral asset allocation percentages to achieve the desired allocations. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10% for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Risk:

Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Blend Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. Section Two: Rollover Contribution Information

Acceptable rollover funds

The Plan will accept taxable* money from the following types of plans: 401(a) plans (e.g., 401(k)); 403(a) plans; governmental 457(b) plans; 403(b) plans (e.g., plans of tax-exempt organizations); conduit IRAs (rollover IRAs); non-conduit IRAs (traditional IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension plans (SEP-IRAs)) and "SIMPLE" IRA distributions made more than two years from the date you first participated in the SIMPLE IRA; distributions of taxable monies made to you as (1) a Spousal beneficiary from a current or former spouse from these types of plans, or (2) an alternate payee pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO). In addition, the Plan will accept the following money types if indicated below: Roth 401(k), Roth 403(b), or Roth 457(b); After-tax contributions from 401(a) and 403(a) plans.

Taxable money is defined as pretax contributions (employee and employer), earnings on pretax contributions, and taxable earnings on after-tax contributions from your previous employer's plan.

Please note: Making rollover contributions to the Plan that consist of assets other than qualified 401(a), or 403(a) plan assets, or conduit IRA (rollover IRA) assets, may result in the loss of capital gains or 10-year income-averaging tax treatment associated with lump sum distributions from the Plan. If you may be eligible for this special tax treatment, you should consult your tax adviser and carefully consider the impact of making a rollover contribution to the Plan. Please talk to your tax adviser for additional information and review the special tax notice to determine if you're eligible.

Unacceptable rollover sources

The Plan cannot accept money from the following sources: rollovers from nonspousal beneficiary accounts, payments over a life expectancy or a period of 10 or more years, or Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs). Also unacceptable are Roth IRAs, HSAs and Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (CESAs). In-kind distributions of employer stock are not acceptable; therefore, stock must be sold and the proceeds (including any appreciation realized through the date of distribution) may be rolled over.

Section Three: Investment Elections

I direct Fidelity to invest my rollover contribution into my current investment mix applicable to rollover contributions. If I have not previously made investment elections for the rollover contribution it will be invested based on my elections for elective deferral contributions. If I have not selected an investment mix on my own via NetBenefits® or by telephone, I understand that this rollover contribution will be invested in the Plan's default investment option as directed by my employer.

Section Four: Participant Certification

I authorize the investment election for this rollover and acknowledge that I have received information detailing my available investment options. I acknowledge that my rollover contribution will be invested in accordance with section three of this form.

I certify that this rollover amount is composed ONLY of money from acceptable sources listed under Section Two, and I have completed the information regarding the source of this money to the best of my knowledge. Also, if the distribution check was made payable to me, I understand that this rollover must be received and deposited to my account within 60 days of receipt of the distribution. I understand that, once invested, these monies will be subject to the terms that govern the Plan.

This information provides only a summary of the main features of the Independence Pet Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan, and the Plan document will govern in the event of any discrepancy.

A mutual fund expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses (before waivers or reimbursements) paid by the fund and stated as a percentage of the fund's total net assets. For other types of investments, the figure in the expense ratio field reflects similar information, but may have been calculated differently than for mutual funds. Mutual fund data comes from the fund's prospectus. For non-mutual fund investment options, the information has been provided by the plan sponsor, the investment option's manager, or the trustee. When no ratio is shown for these options, it is because none was available. There may be fees and expenses associated with the investment option. Expense information changes periodically. Please consult NetBenefits.com for updates.

The Plan is intended to be a participant-directed plan as described in Section 404(c) of ERISA, which means that fiduciaries of the Plan are ordinarily relieved of liability for any losses that are the direct and necessary result of investment instructions given by a participant or beneficiary.

Fidelity retail products and services are offered separately from your employer-sponsored retirement plan.
